DATE: 27TH JUNE,2006

P.C.

. The case of the petitioners themselves is that their structures have been demolished. It is their contention that it was without notice. Reply has been filed on behalf of the respondent contending that the notices were given. At any rate we do not propose to go into the controversy. Suffice it to say that no relief can be granted by this Court in the exercise of its extra ordinary jurisdiction. If the petitioners have any other remedy at law it will be open to them to move the appropriate forum for the same. With the above observation petition stands disposed of.
